NUMBER 49

THE FLAG WITH THE FORTY-SIX STARS.

Come friends and join with one accord
In this great glad-once strain,
We'll make the air with music ring
As we sing with might and main
All hail to the flag of our country!
The flag of the good and true,
It's made of strip of red and white
And blue in a field of blue.

CHORUS.

All hail to the stars and stripes that we love,
Whilst nothing its beauty mars,
We'll tip our hats to Uncle Sam
And the flag with the forty-six stars.

And while thus inspired we sing
Of our Nation's glorious rise,
Let us not forget to give God praise
For the freedom which we prize.
Like the stars that's placed in a field
of blue,
Each has his place to fill,
Each has his part in the Nation's pride,
Let's sing with a strong good will.

CHORUS.

May the flag still wave o'er our country
fair,
As it did in the glorious past,
Let each heart tell how truth shall live
While time and tide shall last.
We'll find then a place for another star
When the signal shall be given,
We are proud to place a star of white
In the field that's blue like Heaven.

CHORUS.

MRS. MOLLIE T. TURNER.

"United We Stand."

In many ways and for many years we have been playing politics very much like children. We have lost. It is now certain that if we play like men we can win. For the first time Mr. Bryan comes to the front with a compact party behind him. For the first time the man, the party and the issue meet upon the field of Opportunity. The Electoral Vote of Kentucky will be required to insure his triumph. It is ours for the asking. Shall we lose it, and in the loss of it lose the Presidency, through internal dissension purely personal and factional, having no relation to any of the great National Questions involved? That were to play directly into the hand of the enemy. It would be not only childish, but insane and suicidal.

The Courier-Journal has no interest whatever to serve except the common interest. It has been, and it is, trying to point the way to the winning of a great victory, not to another ghastly defeat. Otherwise it forms no part of the record, nor can be called a party issue. When the time comes to consider and determine State affairs, we shall be right in the middle of the fray, ready to meet all comers and to answer every indictment. We hope that when that time arrives wisdom will prevail—that byoneses shall be byoneses—that we shall have peace, not war; though if it is to be war, we promise it shall be war to the knife.

This, however, is no time for crimination and recrimination. We are all agreed upon the main point, the nomination of Mr. Bryan at Denver and his election in November; the third and last chance of the People versus the system of the Republic versus the Plutocracy.

The Courier-Journal takes the field with abounding enthusiasm and hope—such hope and such enthusiasm as it has not had since the great battle of 1876. It believes that as surely as Mr. Bryan is nominated, so surely he will be elected. He cannot be elected without Kentucky. If we lose Kentucky through any factional divisions we should be and we shall be doubly and eternally damned.—Courier-Journal.

GOOD PAINT must be opaque, must cover, it must obscure the surface. Green Seal does this with the least amount of paint. Thos. Kennedy.

BREWERS

Declare For the Elimination of the Dive.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 9.—Resolutions declaring the United States Brewers' Association to be in favor of the eradication of the dive, came before the convention. The resolutions declare that municipal laws in all the cities should have the co-operation of the brewers in their efforts to wipe out disreputable saloons.

President Liebmann, took the Superintendents of the Anti-Saloon League, most of them former clergymen, to task by asking: "How can they advocate a policy of confiscation pronounced by Justice Brewer to be both dishonest and immoral?"

In reference to the saloon President Liebmann said:

The abuse of the saloon is marked by disorderly and disreputable practices, which are not really incidental to the business. We agree with all decent men upon these points.

1. That the saloon should not be used to foster the social evil, and should be utterly divorced from it.

2. That the saloon should not be used for gambling purposes.

3. That the saloon should not be open to minors, and that the sale of intoxicants to children should be proscribed.

Mayor David B. Rose, of Milwaukee, who has started a war against the dive saloons in Milwaukee, made an address of welcome, and in the course of his remarks made reference to the warfare being made against all saloons which did not come within the "decent" class.

The Mayor and Chief of Police of Milwaukee, in a petition to the Common Council, have placed the ban on about fifty saloons of the class considered as being "low" and recommended that no license be granted to those contained in the list.

PRICE and economy are not the same. Economy is the offspring of covering capacity and durability. Prove this with Green Seal Paint. Thos. Kennedy.

Next Reunion.

Gen. Clement A. Evans, of Georgia, was elected Commander-in-Chief of the United Confederate Veterans. Memphis was selected as the place of holding the next reunion.

Damage Suit Dismissed.

The suit of the heirs of Dr. B. D. Cox against the estate of James Hargis, Ed Callahan and others for $100,000 damages for the murder of Dr. Cox was dismissed at Lexington at the cost of the defendants, a compromise having been effected. It is said that the defendants paid $8,000.

Denounces Soldiers Presence in Bourbon County.

"Shall Kentuckians be a free people, or shall they submit to military domination after the form of Russian despotism," was asked by Judge Stout in his charge to the Bourbon grand jury.

He denounced the "unauthorized, illegal and unwarranted usurpation of the civil authorities by the military branch of the State Government."

He said it was time for the good citizens of Bourbon to consider why, in a time of great peace, without the semblance of any disorder, a detachment of the State Guard was marching to and fro through the county and to inquire by whose order they were in the county.

Local Option Worse Than Prohibition.

Milwaukee, June 8.—Brewers from all parts of the country were in Milwaukee to attend the forty-eight annual convention.

President Julius Liebmann, of New York, at the head of a delegation of about 100 brewers arrived from New York on a special train.

President Liebmann, in the course of an interview said:

"The most important question before the convention of the United States Brewers' Association is not prohibition but the local option laws. These laws will make it necessary for brewers, in self-protection to get into politics."

National Secretary Hugh F. Fox, of the association, says that the greatest undertaking which the brewers will have to confront in fighting the prohibition war will be to clean up the disreputable saloons. There is no use arguing the question of the brewers responsibility for the things which exist, he added.

GIVING OUT.

The Struggle Discourages Many a Citizen of Mt. Sterling.

Around all day with an aching back; Can't rest at night; Enough to make any one "give out," Doan's Kidney Pills will give renewed life.

They will cure the backache; Cure every kidney ail.

Here is Mt. Sterling proof that this is so:

Thos. Holland, living at 52 E. High street, Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "I have been using Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for two years and I consider them the best remedy I ever used. Doctors pronounced my trouble as lumbago. I suffered severely for days at a time and spent hundreds of dollars in an effort to find relief, but without success. Doan's Kidney Pills, however, which I procured at Duerson's drug store, did me more good than any other remedy I had previously taken. They banished the backache, also regulated the action of my kidneys and I might say that they entirely cured me. They have at least helped me so much that I have not had any trouble for a long time."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

By a vote of 87 to 20 the Locke anti-smoking bill was passed by the Louisiana House of Representatives. The bill is now up to the Senate.

Don't let the baby suffer from eczema, sores or any itching of the skin. Doan's Ointment gives instant relief, cures quickly. Perfectly safe for children. All druggists sell it.

Will Fight Speaker Cannon.

The National Anti-Saloon League is now considering the advisability of waging a war on Speaker Cannon to prevent his re-election to Congress from Illinois.

Mr. Nicholson, author of the Nicholson law in Indiana, said that Speaker Cannon has stood consistently for the liquor interests.

"He fixed the machinery of the House so as to prevent any temperance measures from passing."

It Does the Work.

Bishop Bros., merchants, Wilmore, Ky., say: "We don't want you to let anyone else in our town to have Bourbon Hog Cholera Remedy. It does the work and we are going after the business. Sold by W. Lloyd."

INSURE your property with a coat of Green Seal Paint, it more than pays its own premiums. Thos. Kennedy.

Kansas Women in Office.

The appointment of Mrs. Levi Cooper as Probate Judge of Mitchell county by Gov. Hoch, and the discussion that resulted from the appointment, have developed the fact that nearly every kind of office in the State except State offices has one or more women occupants. Mrs. Cooper is the only woman in the State who is serving as Probate Judge. However, there is one woman County Attorney in Kansas. Miss Oala Heinlein is serving her third term as County Attorney of Seward county. Western Kansas has had several women County Attorneys, but the custom never appears to have become popular in the eastern part of the State. In Norton county Kate Johnson has just completed a term as County Treasurer. There are half a dozen or more County Registers of Deeds in the State, and probably thirty women county superintendents of schools. So far as is known, there are no women in Kansas serving as clerks of the district courts or county commissioners. However, several have served as Mayors of cities.—Kansas City Journal.

Knock-Down Theology.

"I never discuss marriage," said the late General Fitzhugh Lee, "without thinking of an old colored preacher in my state, who was addressing his dark skinned congregation, when a white man arose in the back of the building. 'Mr. Preacher,' said the white man, 'you are talking about Cain, and you say he got married in the land of Nod, after he killed Abel. But the Bible mentions only Adam and Eve as being on earth at that time. Who, then, did Cain marry?'"

"The colored preacher snorted with unforgotten contempt. 'Hu!' he said. 'You hear that fool question I am axed? Cain, he went to de land o' Nod just as de Good Book tells us, an' in de land o' Nod Cain gets so lazy and so shiftless dat he up an' marries a gal of one o' dem no 'count pore white trash families dat de inspired apostle didn't consider fittin' to mention in de Holy Word.'"—Wit and Humor.

An Invaluable Remedy.

Chas. Stephenson, Clintonville, Ky., says: "I cured my chickens of cholera with Bourbon Poultry Cure and cannot speak too highly of it as an invaluable remedy for fowls." Sold by W. S. Lloyd.

The Stingiest Man.

Gullitan claims to have the stingiest man in Tennessee, if not in the world, and a premium is offered for his superior in close-fistedness. He got married to a home girl to save expenses. They walked around the square for a bridal tour. He bought her a nickel's worth of stick candy for a wedding present, and then suggested that they save the candy for the children.

In the Interest of Education.

Each county must educate itself. Neither Federal aid nor State aid can establish and maintain in a county a better system of schools than the people of the county are themselves ready to work for and pay for. The need of the public schools of Kentucky today is local support, not merely local taxation but local concern, local pride, a determination in each county to put the schools of that county in the first rank.

The problems of education in Kentucky are largely Kentucky's problems. They relate to the negro vote, they relate to a widely scattered population as distinct from the concentrated populations of the eastern States, and they relate to the poverty of certain counties, so-called pauper counties, which are not pauper counties at all. They are called pauper counties because they draw out of the treasury more than they pay into it, but that is under a law of averages and not so much a matter of pauperism.

The friends of education in Kentucky are carrying on a campaign of agitation. They are striving to awaken each community to a sense of its own shortcomings, to induce that community to provide the proper means for the proper conduct of schools, to redeem the State from the stigma of illiteracy.—Courier-Journal.

His Debt Has Been Paid at Last

At St. Paul, Minn., on June 3, a few minutes after Robert A. Smith had retired from the office of Mayor of St. Paul he was handed an envelope containing a draft for $11,000. This amount had been contributed by eighty-one business men of St. Paul as an appreciation of the ex-Mayor's services to the city.

Ex-Mayor Smith is eighty-one years of age, and has an office-holding record of fifty years, fifteen years of which, with the exception of one term, was spent in the Mayor's office. At one time he was a very wealthy man, but the failure of a bank of which he was an officer led him to voluntarily dispose of all of his property to make the loss to depositors as small as possible. It was only a short time ago that he collected up the last of his debts, and he would have left the Mayor's office penniless had it not been for the contribution.

CUSSES 66c EACH.

Among the eight or nine cases in Police Court on Monday morning was one of rare occurrence and kind. A colored man was arraigned for swearing. He admitted that he swore, saying that another man tried to induce him to take some whiskey and that he did not want to take it, and that he used profane words. A policeman stated that he heard the man swear three times. There was no testimony to show that he was boisterous or disorderly or the charge would have been "disorderly conduct." The usual statutory price for a cuss is $1, but he got a special price (this is the season of closing out and removal sales) for $2, a reduction of one-third.

If every white man who is heard to cuss on the street should be fined 66c per cuss, the City Treasury would be so flush that city vouchers issued prior to 1908 could be paid on demand.

If cussin is finable, why show partiality to a colored man? Why not touch the white cultured (?) citizen who makes the air blue with his profane words?

Men of both colors should look alike when it comes to genteel, (?) polite (?) swearing.

MORE CRAZY? PEOPLE.

As a result of the local option elections held in Oregon this month, county prohibition will prevail in twenty-one of the thirty-three counties after July.

"Self-preservation is the first law of nature," yet some folks say that a man is a crank, a bigot, a fool, if he makes a light or in a dignified way tries to protect the community from the ravages of open saloons. We have no apology to offer for our pleading for a higher standard of life. It's a comment on a people when they are willing to legalize saloons for revenue to reduce taxes.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The Republican National Convention is in session at Chicago. Indications are that Mr. Taft will be nominated on first ballot. Since Gov. Willson on Saturday pardoned Caleb Powers and James Howard his friends are trying to boom him for Vice-President. We hope this is not his chief merit for the place.

The pardon of men charged with and convicted for murder is not without its honors. Some people seem to think that for this act Gov. Willson should be nominated for Vice-President. Strange things happen.

Hon. H. R. Prewitt does not do things half way and will see to it that every county and precinct in the State is thoroughly organized for the coming November election.

The Kentucky Press Association is in session this week at Cerulian Springs. Our brethren of the quill deserve all they may be able to receive.

Harmony is the song now. That was the thing at Lexington convention.

If Kentucky is to return to her former Democratic majorities the people must forget all differences and line up.

See what Judge Stout thinks of Military domination when he "Denounces Presence of Soldiers in Bourbon County."

Hon. H. R. Prewitt will make friendship ties the stronger and bring Democratic foes together, having buried hatchets.

Governor Augustus E. Willson may become the Republican nominee for the Vice Presidency. A bout in his favor is on.

Democratic Chairman Henry R. Prewitt will form a compact organization that will count for much to the Democratic party.

Urey Woodson, National Democratic Campaign Committeeman, is familiar with the State and the best method of bringing things to pass.

GUESSING.

In a statement given out at the Governor's office, a State Guard officer is quoted as saying that the withdrawal of troops would be the signal for a new uprising of night riders.

Indications point to the union of all of the Democratic factions. Louisville Democrats have made up and the Saloon Democrats will hereafter support the regular Democratic ticket the same as the Saloon Republicans will vote the Republican ticket.

Saloonists in Louisville have been notified to pay their license promptly for August 1 or be closed up. Heretofore extensions have been granted. If the saloon business is honorable, helpful, conducive to morality, happy lives; if it gives to its patrons an adequate return for the expenditure; if such saloonists be subjected to such exactions for privilege and forced to close at certain hours and on election days, etc.; Is there any justice in it? The verdict from all States is that saloons make for evil. Why not prohibit them altogether?

We repeat what we have frequently said before, all people who regard the enforcement of laws should stand firmly with Governor Willson in his effort to enforce the laws. All men deserve protection. They pay their taxes. They merit what they have paid for and under the laws they should expect nothing less than protection. If a man steals your horse he should be punished for it, if he burns your home he should be punished for this also and if he should scrape your tobacco beds or be proven guilty of applying the torch to your tobacco barn, he should be made to endure a just punishment. Adjutant General Johnson and his force of assistants are laboring hard day and night in their efforts to enforce the laws and in this they deserve the co-operation of all citizens. This lawlessness must be brought to a close, but can not without the sympathy and support of the law-abiding element of the Commonwealth. If we would have our homes secure, if we would have our lives free from assault, we must stand by our officers in their efforts to restore peace.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

We, the representatives of the Democracy of Kentucky, in convention assembled at Lexington, June 11, 1908, reaffirm our allegiance and devotion to the principles of the Democratic party as represented by Jefferson and advocated by a long line of illustrious leaders and as set forth in the national Democratic platform in 1904. We indorse and point with satisfaction to the wise, honest and economical conduct of the State government by the Democratic administration of Gov. J. C. W. Beckham and his associates in office.

We disapprove and condemn the weak, vacillating, hypocritical and arbitrary conduct of our State affairs by the present Republican administration.

We instruct the delegation elected by this convention to cast the vote of Kentucky as a unit upon all questions and matters coming before the national Democratic convention to be held at Denver, Col., July 7, 1908, and they are hereby further instructed to vote for William Jennings Bryan as the nominee for president by said convention and continue to vote for him until he shall be nominated.

J. N. KEHOE, Chairman.

TRIUMPH IN STATE AND NATION

Newly Elected Chairman Prewitt Writes Letter to the Democrats of Kentucky.

Hon. Henry R. Prewitt, of this city, newly elected chairman of the Democratic State Central and Executive Committee has issued the following statement:

To the Democrats of Kentucky: "Words are inadequate at this time to express my appreciation and gratitude for the signal honor and in proof thereof I shall bring to the discharge of the duties of this sacred trust whatever ability I may possess in a spirit of earnest devotion to the party's interest and welfare, and with a promise and pledge, ever abiding, of universal fairness and square dealing to all in the management of all the party's affairs."

SEATS FACTIONALISM'S DOOM.
 "The noble spirit of harmony and good feeling, so abundantly manifested in the convention, is the very seal of death of factionalism, and an evidence of the end of the bitter internal strife of the past. 'Let by-gones be by-gones.' Let the dead past bury its dead. Never before has there been witnessed such a spirit of toleration, and the putting aside of self, all for the promotion of the people's and the party's cause."

"This magnificent display of true party fealty and loyalty on the part of Kentucky's noble Democracy is but an index finger, pointing onward to our coming again into our own, and to a sure and final triumph both in the State and Nation."

NO DISCORDANT NOTE SOUNDING.

"No discordant note has been sounded. No spy from the enemy lurks in our camp. We are all brothers in the bond. With our faces toward the future, with a united and harmonious party, we face a rising and not a setting sun. "I conceive the purpose of the organization to be confined to carrying into effect the wishes of the voters, and of honestly and intelligently seeking to promote the interests and establish the policies of the party."

"It shall not be my purpose to try to control the party or to mould its sentiments in favor of any particular interest or person, but I shall earnestly endeavor to carry out whatever policy the party in its deliberate judgement and speaking through its representatives may favor."

ACCEPTS HONOR AND DUTY.

"In the spirit in which my fellow Democrats have conferred the honor and the duty I accept it; and 'with malice toward none and charity for all' let us, as a reunited and rehabilitated party, strive on to the accomplishment of Democracy's mission."

Chairman Prewitt, after the Democratic Convention, will call a meeting of the State Central and Executive Committee, to be held in Louisville, at which time both committees will be organized.

GOVERNING BODIES.

Changes On the Committees.

At Lexington last week all factional fights in the various districts of the State were settled amicably and the district conventions were all harmonious. One of the hardest fights was in the Tenth district, where Henry Cox and F. A. Lyon were battling for the position of State Central Committeeman. It was agreed, finally, that the other candidates should withdraw and the two leading candidates each take a place on the State committees, Mr. Lyon going on the State Executive Committee. The following is the make-up of the new committees:

RADICAL CHANGES

IN PARTY LAW.

All Precinct Committeemen Elected by the People—Office Holders are Barred From Committees.

The Democratic Convention, on recommendation of the Committee on Permanent Organization, made radical changes in the party law. The committee yielded to the popular Democratic demand for a more representative government of the party organization.

The report provided for an election of all State Central and Executive Committeemen by the Congressional districts through the State Convention.

Under this new law the Democratic voters become the electors of the committeemen.

The chairmen of committees are no longer permitted to cast two votes, but only vote once, not as a delegate, but as chairman, in case of a tie.

If any member of any Democratic committee shall become a candidate for any office, his office as a committeeman is at once vacated.

OFFICER-HOLDERS NOT ELIGIBLE.

No Democrat holding a Federal, State, county or municipal office, can be a member of any Democratic committee and is ineligible for membership.

CORRESPONDENCE.

PLUM LICK.

George Douglas and Blanch Boardman, after quite a pleasant visit in Montana, have returned home.

John Slope is jubilant over the arrival of a ten-pound boy, the first boy—William Jennings Bryan. Later we heard John fell off the fence and cut an artery in his arm on a piece of glass and very near died to death before the doctor arrived.

A letter from William Staggs, of Wibaux, Montana, states that he likes the country fine and has taken up a claim of 160 acres. He is cultivating 100 acres and we suppose is getting rich fast.

James Kendall will leave soon for Montana and South Dakota on a prospecting trip. If he likes he will take up a claim in Montana of 160 acres or invest near by. Several persons are going with him, some to invest in a free homestead and some to take in the big wheat harvest of the Northwest at $3 per day.

Mr. Martin is in his junior year in the College of the Bible, coming from Rowan county. Bids For Public Building Site.

House of Representatives U. S., June 10, 1908.

B. W. Trimble,
Mt. Sterling, Ky.

My Dear Sir:—I naturally feel very much gratified that I was able to redeem the promise I made to the people of Mt. Sterling in 1906, that if elected I would secure for them an appropriation for a public building.

The Supervising Architect of the Treasury informs me that the Department will shortly advertise for sealed proposals for a site, and that shortly after these have been received, a representative of the Department will be sent to Mt. Sterling to inspect the various sites proposed and submit a recommendation. Every site offered will of course be given due consideration, and the decision will be based wholly upon what appears to be for the best interests of the Government.

I shall take no part in the selection of the site, nor seek to influence the action of the Government in making its choice. I do not think it would be proper for me to do so. I am interested only in seeing that the best interests of the Government and the City are subserved.

With kindest regards, I am,
Very truly yours,
Jno. W. Langley.

NOTICE.

At a meeting of the Montgomery County Board of the Burley Tobacco Society, held at the Court-house in Mt. Sterling at 1 o'clock Monday, June 15, 1908, a resolution was adopted that no person or persons must buy pooled tobacco in Montgomery county without the consent of the County Board.

The Board expresses surprise that any member of the Society should sell his tobacco at a less price than at which it is graded when the tobacco is selling rapidly at Equity prices. Two-thirds of the 1906 crop is already sold and buyers are beginning for the 1907 crop.

Tao Personal.
A trolley car had collided with a heavily laden milk cart, and sent an after of milk splashing into the street. Soon a crowd gathered. A man, coming up, had to stand on tip-toe and keep dodging his head about to see just a stout lady in front of him. "Goodness," he exclaimed, "what an awful waste!" The stout lady turned and glared at him. "Mind your own business," she snapped—Everybody's Magazine.

Dispersion of the Overcrowded.
Recent building statistics contained in various departmental reports seem to justify the belief that the problem of decentralizing population in this town is in a fair way of being solved. They prove that a notable dispersion of residence construction has already been achieved, and by disclosing what sort of people have been least benefited by the dispersion suggest special measures of relief on their behalf.—New York Sun.

Grey Hairs.
There are some signs of hard times that no man with properly functioning optic nerves can overlook. Scores of milliners have obviously been compelled by adversity to discharge all their high salaried designers of art hats and employ in their stead madmen frantically eager to reproduce dementia Americana in headgear.

Polite Chinese Children.
While very young the little Chinese is taught "manners," how to come into a room, to bow very low to parents or those older than himself—ever till his head nearly touches the floor—and to "chin-chin." This is their polite greeting, which takes the form of our hand-shaking.

Could Not Extinguish Light.
A peasant from Ober Hesse, who saw electric light for the first time at a hotel in Mayence, Germany, where he was spending the night, broke a blood vessel in endeavoring to blow out the light. His condition is hopeless.

Rolling Pin Method.
A Nebraska woman sewed her husband between two blankets and beheaded him with a rolling pin until he agreed to sign a temperance pledge. We rather suspect that is one variety of prohibition likely to actually prohibit.—Redlands Review.

A Profanity Saver.
In putting a tack into a place where it is difficult to hold it with the fingers, thrust it through a little strip of paper, and thus keep the fingers from under the hammer and your temper from high temperature.—Good Housekeeping.

For the Best in Life.
Would you be exempt from unctions—do nothing that you know or suspect to be wrong. Would you enjoy the purest pleasures—do everything in your power which you are convinced is right.—Leighton.

None Entirely Unworthy.
Degrees in merit must always be, but the weakest among us has a gift, however seemingly trivial, which is peculiar to him, and which, worthily used, will be a gift to his race.—Ruskin.

Where Works Count.
"De futh cure," said Uncle Eben, "may be good for some ailments, but I have to see a man standin' and tryin' to mend his fences an' if de mortgage wif it."—Washington Star.

An Ideal Couple.
An Indian man has a record of having stayed at home for 13,593 consecutive evenings. Greater compliment can no man pay to his wife.—Washington Post.

The Really Great.
The really great are the few who make a success of a failure, though the many who make a failure of success commonly get the name.

Country's Matchmakers.
In addition to the anxious mothers and媒婆like neighbors, more than 60,000 people in this country are engaged in the matchmaking industry.

Paper Bullets Not Deadly.
Shall quips and sentences and these paper bullets of the brain are a man from the career of his humor.—Shakespeare.

Value Added to Elegance.
Common counsel eloquence comes high so long as it is to be officially reported in full. Otherwise it is pretty cheap erudition.—Boston Herald.

When It's Different.
Every one will generously share his troubles with the world, but who will divide his joys?—Life.

Be Slow in Action.
If we go wrong, the further we go the further we are from home.—German Proverb.

Makes Many Kinds of Wine.
Grape is squeezed six times in making champagne, yielding nine of different qualities.

Seeks No Welcome.
Irish proverb: He that comes unbidden will sit down unasked.

A Word from Josh Wiles.
"TV head that rocks th' cradle doesn't foot th' mill."

Aesop's Fables.
Fable springs from the universal need of men to express their thoughts by concrete images and emblems, and is practically coeval with humanity itself—the east, the land of myth, is the natural home of the fable. From Hindu to the Bankist fables passed to China, Thibet and Persia, reaching Greece at an early period, since it is now known that many of the fables which passed Aesop's are identical with those of the east.—New York American.

School for Dogs.
A school for dogs has been established in Paris. The object is to teach them politeness. The animals are trained to welcome visitors by jumping up, wagging the tail and giving a low bark. When the visitor leaves the dog accompanies him to the door, constantly wagging his tail and howls his farewell by bending his head to the floor. He is trained, likewise, to pick up a handkerchief, glove or fan that has been dropped and return it to the owner.

Cleim Ancient Lineage.
Native historians of Afghanistan assert that the sealabab is a descendant of the lost ten tribes of Israel. According to these chroniclers, the Afghans are descended from Af. The sealabab is the son of a certain Jeremiah, who was the son of a King Saul. The eastward removal of the seed of Afghans is attributed to Nebuchadnezzar.

Scalp Safely Replaced.
A girl named Gordon, working in a laundry at Ballymena, Belfast, Ireland, was caught in a machine by the hair and completely scalped. A doctor ordered her removed to the hospital. The scalp was also taken there, and Dr. Davidson succeeded in sewing it on. The girl is alive and making good progress.

Scented Hatpins Now.
The scented hatpin or hairpin is the newest device, for perfume that is stale is very unpleasant, and its effect may be overcome by simply moving these hatpins in the hair, the result being a fresh evolution of the sweet odor that is gratifying to those fond of it.

Swallowed Her Week's Wages.
A Dundee (Scotland) girl swallowed a week's wages recently. To safeguard her money, which consisted of one gold and two silver coins, she carried it in her mouth. The accident was caused by her laughing heartily at a joke.

News.
Some persons are disturbed by the fact that evil deeds seem to predominate in the news. Of course! It is necessary that evil be exposed, but good conduct, which is the rule, does not particularly call for the limelight of publicity.

Severe on Brother Lawyers.
One old member of the New York bar, who has long been in touch with court methods and proceedings, says he wonders why a certificate of good character is required before a man is admitted to practice.

Slightly Different.
The request was made in a public library for the rather remarkable little "Walt a Minute." After some detective work on the part of the librarian it was found the book wanted was "Tarry Toss Till I Come."

Peru's Fertile Valleys.
The chief agricultural region of Peru consists of a series of fertile parallel valleys running the entire extension of the coast—over 1,300 miles—back to the chain of the Andes, the distance varying from 25 to 75 miles.

What Piety Is.
In the course of a discussion on byelane in one of the local medical societies a speaker, in illustrating his remarks, said: "Many a man thinks he is pious when he is only bilious."

Her Preference.
A woman would rather inherit an outlandish looking husband from her great-grandmother than a set of the finest brasses from her father.

Good Nature.
The man who is always complaining that people are imposing on his good nature is probably sure to have a hairy idea of what good nature is.

Forget Self.
The secret of getting along with people is to think about them more than you think of yourself. When folks fail you take to books.

Louisiana has a steel sawmill with a capacity of 600,000 feet a day, which is said to be the largest in this country.

LACKED SENSE OF GRATITUDE.

New York Woman's Ridiculous Complaint Against Firemen.

"Talk about ingratitude," said a fireman," according to the New York Sun, "it would be impossible to share on any tooth belonging to a serpent or anything else so it could bite the ingratitude of a woman, whose house caught fire recently. It was an icy-covered house and very pretty. The fire broke out first at the corner where the alarm was sent in, and it took some pretty lively hustling on our part to keep the whole place from going up in smoke. However, we managed to save the house, the people living there, and most of the furniture, not mentioning a few pet dogs and a cat, so we flattened ourselves that we had done about all that could be expected under the circumstances. But we found that we were mistaken. The day after the fire the woman who owned the house gave us a call. We supposed she came to thank us—people do those things sometimes, you know—but she hadn't, if you will believe me, she had come to lambast us for tearing down all those ropes by which she had taken, so many years to train over the walls of the house."

WATER THIS MAN'S ONLY DIET.

Los Angeles Citizen Tries a Novel Plan to Stop Smoking.

Just because Irv H. Elmore, a Los Angeles cigar dealer, wanted to stop smoking and also reduce his weight, he began to live on nothing but water and now and then a sour lemonade, he says ago.

He has lost 20 pounds out of his 220-pound total, and wants to lose four or five more.

His voice alone seems weak. Otherwise this "personally conducted" experiment to stop smoking, as he calls it, has proven quite enjoyable. Elmore says, and he declares he rather dislikes the idea of ever eating again.

However, this is not a complete abstinence from sustenance which he is undergoing now, with the result that the first week he lost flesh at the rate of two pounds a day; the second week he lost a pound a day, after half a pound, and finally but a few ounces. He began the fast gradually, one meal and then one day at a time, until after he had gone three days without eating, when everything went well.

He does not feel nervous or run down, and sleeps well.

All Caused by Mongrel.

How a yellow mongrel dog "sleeked" Theodore Roosevelt into reforming the New York police department was told to the Rockefeller Bible class by Jacob H. Riss, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., was there.

Mr. Riss said he was going to jump into the bay one night when a yellow dog came up and rubbed against him. It was so friendly that he gave up the outside idea and took the dog to a police station to spend the night.

A police sergeant threw Riss out and the dog bit the policeman, who promptly killed it.

Later, when Roosevelt was police commissioner, Riss told him of the incident. He was so incensed that then and there he began cleaning out the police stations.

Pneumatic Clocks in Paris.

The city of Paris is being rapidly supplied with a system of public clocks worked by compressed air under electrical control.

The entire area of the city is divided into sections about a mile and three-quarters in radius, and in the center of each section is a substation provided with a reservoir of compressed air, from which air pipes extend to all the clocks included in the section.

By means of electro-magnets, controlled by minute with currents from the commutator controlled by the master clock at the central station, the air pipes are intermittently connected with the reservoirs, and thus the compressed air, once every minute, drives forward the hands of the clock.

Steel in Place of Leather.

Steel bands or belts, as a substitute for ordinary leather or rope drives, have been introduced by a factory of Charlottenburg, Germany. Such belts may be reduced to about one-sixth of the size required for leather belts, they do not stretch, pulleys may be narrower, and in some cases shafts may be smaller. Other ordinary pulleys or pulleys with a special covering to increase friction may be used. A belt four inches wide and one-fifth of an inch thick transmits 200 to 250 horsepower at a belt speed of 5,400 feet per minute, and tests have shown that steel belts may run 12,000 feet per minute.

Professional.

The little daughter of a homeopathic physician received a ring with a pearl in it on the Christmas Eve. Two days later she poked her head fearfully in at the door of her father's office.

"Papa," she sobbed, "papa, I've lost the little pill out of my ring."—Harpers.

Closing the Incident.

The famous ball player was looking through the sporting columns of the newspapers.

"I see they've quit mentioning me," he said. "I may as well stop writing. Upon doing which he secured one more mention in the newspapers."

Only About 5,000,000 Pounds.

The report published from Commissioner of Agriculture M. C. Rankin that only 5,000 acres of tobacco is being grown in the burley district, has had much to do with ending the tobacco war.

The heavy rains through the burley district during the first ten days in June killed or badly injured much of the tobacco set out so that it is believed now by the Agriculture Department that not more than four or five million pounds of tobacco will be raised. This amount is so insignificant that the tobacco men have come to the conclusion that it is useless to quarrel about it.

DISMISSED.

Board of Safety Discharges Policemen.

In Louisville Detective Edward Ecker, charged with starting a rough house in the tenderloin district, was dismissed from the police force by the Board of Public Safety. Joe Pickering, in the house with Ecker when he started trouble, was also dismissed from the force. Con O'Leary was discharged for conduct unbecoming an officer in the 1905 elections. John McNamee was discharged for neglect of duty, and Edward Murphy for entering a saloon while on duty.

"Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee imitation ever yet produced. This clever Coffee Substitute was recently produced by Dr. Shoon, Racine, Wis. Not a grain of real Coffee in it either. Dr. Shoon's Health Coffee is made from pure roasted grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—who might drink it for Coffee. No 20 or 30 minute tedious boiling. "Made in a minute," says the doctor. Sold by Spot Cash Grocery Co. 47-41

Without Delays Saloonkeepers Must Pay Licenses.

No leniency will be shown the 300 saloonkeepers in Louisville this year in regard to the renewal of their licenses for the year beginning the first Monday in August. Marshall Bullitt, member of the License Board, issued an edict to that effect. The saloonkeeper who has not paid into the city treasury $500 by the first Monday in August and received his license will have his place of business closed by the police.

Anti-Racing Bills Passed By New York Legislature.

After a struggle the famous Agnew-Hart anti-race track gambling bills are now laws of the State of New York. Gov. Hughes, by his signature, crowned a legislative victory, the brilliancy of which is conceded even by those who fought him.

EFFECT OF THE BILLS.

The bills in no way affect the State Racing Commission in particular, or horseracing in general. They relate solely to the penalties for gambling, pool-selling and bookmaking, which, as before, are declared to be "a public nuisance." Chapter 506 amends the racing law by amending that provision under which an exclusive penalty of simply recovering at civil suit of the amount wagered was incurred. It also provides that this general penalty shall be "imprisonment in the county jail or penitentiary for a period of not more than one year," without alternative of a fine.

The bill changes the grade of the crime from that of felony to that of a misdemeanor, thus bringing the offense within the jurisdiction of the minor criminal courts.

No Need of Suffering From Rheumatism.

It is a mistake to allow anyone to suffer from rheumatism, as the pain can always be relieved, and in most cases a cure effected by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes sleep and rest possible. Even in cases of long standing this liniment should be used on account of the relief which it affords. Do not be discouraged until you have given it a trial. For sale by R. H. Roda Year on Railroad Train.

A German commercial traveler recently won a bet which he made with an "American sportsman" by taking a continuous trip of one year. The story is vouched for by the Salzburger Volksblatt. "While in the United States to look after an inheritance the German had a discussion with the American and accepted a wager of $10,000 that he could not ride on a train for one year. The choice was by the German was from Vienna to Innsbruck via Linz and Salzburg, by express trains. He took all his meals on the train and slept every night on board. Twice each day he alighted to change cars. Occasionally he would be met at one of these points by his wife, with whom he would exchange a few words, and then be off again. The monotony of it all threatened his reason and toward the end of the year he had a severe attack of influenza. This was overcome and the last trip of the year was successfully made. Except for a slight nervousness, from which he will recover, the winner of the bet is perfectly well after his one-year trip." In commenting on the story another German paper says: "From Salzburg—must be taken with salt."

Tattoo as Temperance Pledge.

Kim Kyong Snyo is a big, strapping fellow, energetic in body and zealous in spirit, who is engaged in selling the Scriptures in Korea. He is a native of the United States and was a member of the Methodist church. He was a member of the Methodist church and was a member of the Methodist church. He was a member of the Methodist church and was a member of the Methodist church.

On the ball of each thumb Kim has a black spot, and the missionary asked him if they were tattoos. "Yes," said Kim. "I did that when I vowed to give up strong drink—so that if ever again I raised a glass of liquor to my mouth in either hand I should see that spot and remember my vow."

Unkind Deduction.

Mrs. Benham—"I'm going to give a big party on my birthday. Benham—"Who will be invited?" Mrs. Benham—"Just my friends." Benham—"I thought you said that you were going to give a big party."

The Moon and Mount Hood.

Perching itself for a few moments on the very top of Mount Hood, the big, new moon illuminated that majestic peak so clearly that its mantle of glittering white, lined to a soft, yellow hue, could be distinguished plainly from Portland and vicinity. Never before, say old-time Oregonians, has the moon been observed to assume the summit so fairly and with such perfect balance. The big, yellow disk apparently could not have been more accurately adjusted to the top of the mountain. And as it passed on upward the top of the mountain circled buried itself in a big black cloud, so that no great stretch of the imagination was required to fill in the picture of an eruption from the peaceful old mountain.

From an artistic standpoint the spectacle was one to be hoarded in the mind memory, and those who saw it may regard themselves as having been peculiarly fortunate. Every year the moon pays a visit to the big peak, but possibly not once in centuries would it climb to the precise central point on the summit and present a picture so perfect.—Portland Oregonian.

France's Flag.

The tricolor, the national flag of France is called, consists of red, white and blue in equal vertical stripes, the blue stripe coming next to the staff. Blue and red were the colors of the city of Paris and white was the color of the Bourbons. In 1789 the national assembly of France decided, on the suggestion of Lafayette, that the national colors should consist of those of the city, with the old color of France, white, added. "Here is a cockade that will make a tour of the world," said Lafayette, in offering the new colors. From 1814 to 1830 the tricolor was displaced by the white flag of the Bourbons.

Duchess a True Philanthropist.

Duchess Philip of "Urtenberg" has contrived a bandage that is so scientifically constructed that manufacturers have taken out patents covering the right to make it in foreign countries. The duchess is said to be the most popular of all the royal ladies of Germany, and much of her popularity is due to the interest she has always shown in the sick poor.

Assessed Fine for Cruelty to Animals.

At Louisville Bart Foley, a teamster, was fined $25 in Police Court for cruelty to animals. Humane Officer Tynan testified that Foley drove a horse and a mule, and that each one of the animal's had severe shoulder bruises.

Born in Iowa.

Our family were all born and raised in Iowa, and have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (made at Des Moines) for years. We know how good it is from long experience in the use of it. In fact, when in El Paso, Texas, the writer's life was saved by the prompt use of this remedy. We are now engaged in the mercantile business at Narcoossee, Fla., and have introduced the remedy here. It has proven very successful and is constantly growing in favor.—Ennis Bros. This remedy is for sale by R. H. White & Co., druggists. 47-41

At Hopkinsville a jury acquitted Mat Ghoslon, an Indian half-breed, who was charged with being a member of the band of night riders which raided Hopkinsville in December.

If one feels dull and spiritless, in the spring or early summer, they call it "Spring Fever." But there is no fever—usually. It is the after effect of our winter habits. The nerves are mostly at fault. Tired, worn-out nerves leave no languid, listless, and without spirit or ambition. A few doses of Dr. Shoon's Restorative will absolutely and quickly change all of these depressing symptoms. The Restorative of course won't bring you back to full health in a day or two, but it will do enough in 48 hours to satisfy you that the remedy is reaching that "tired spot." Druggists everywhere are advising its use as a splendid and prompt general tonic. It gives more vim and more spirit to the body than any other known nerve or constitutional tonic. It sharpens a falling appetite, aids digestion, frees sluggish livers and kidneys, and brings new life, strength and ambition. Test it a few days and be convinced. F. C. Dueson. 47-41
